

Biography

Karen Rose, Auctioneer, BAS

was raised and trained in the auction business under the tutelage of her father and her three sisters. At 16 years old, she worked for her father, David Rose whom had the largest Real Estate and Auction companies in Northern Ohio. Karen has surrounded herself with the auction business, having the good fortune to gain continued auction experience from all three of her sisters, who are also auctioneers.

- Earned the Benefit Auction Specialist designation in 2009
- Graduate of Statzenberger College with a degree in Real Estate Certification
- Graduate of the American School of Auctioneering
- Attended Hondros College for Real Estate Courses
- Is an active Auctioneer with the Manheim Auto Auction in Detroit, Michigan and the Motor City Auction Group in Romulus, Michigan as a bid caller, bid assistant, and sales negotiator
- Established Wine Auctions aboard the Celebrity Cruise Lines and trained the staff on techniques of all selling aspects
- Manages various aspects of sales including marketing, negotiating, and advertising for her sister's companies in regards to personal property auctions
- Has helped with many charities and events including the Red Cross, St. Jude's Children's Hospital, Wine Affair, Northwest Food Bank, Girl Scouts, Kidney Foundation, American Heart Association, Goodwill Industries, Ducks Unlimited, Grouse Society, Elks' Foundation, Christ of King, St. Pete's, St. Pias, Cancer Society, Realtor Association, and the Women's Business Foundation