

Biography

Michael E. Murray, GRI, CAI has spent 35 plus years as a Real Estate Agent/Broker and is also a licensed auctioneer. He has a background in advertising and marketing and always has an interesting story to share.

- In March 2004, Michael won the prestigious Rose Award at the Certified Auctioneers Institute at Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana. Less than 2% of all auctioneers hold the professional designation CAI. By winning this award, Michael has proven he is the best of the Best of Auctioneers nationally
- Licensed Ohio and Florida Real Estate Broker, Licensed Michigan Salesperson
- Member of the Ohio Auctioneers Association and the National Auctioneers Association
- Graduate of Reppert School of Auctioneering
- Formerly the Vice-President of The Danberry Real Estate Co. - Northwest Ohio's Largest Brokerage
- Keynote speaker - California Association of Auctioneers
- Life member of the Ohio Association of Realtor Million Dollar Club
- Produced and managed the Burt Sigley, Scottwood Avenue auction in 2002 that won three advertising awards at the Ohio Association of Auctioneers state convention
- 1997-2001 - Toledo Board of Realtors Trustee
- 1993 - Founder and first director of the Toledo Chapter Harley Owners Group
- 1986 - Toledo Board of Realtors Salesman of the Year
- 1984-1985 - President of the Old West End Association
- 1983 - Founder and First President of the Old West End Security (non-profit)