Property Manager
Licensed Ohio Realtor

Experience

Brady Helminiak is a recent graduate of Reppert School of Auctioneering and will begin his apprenticeship with Pamela Rose Auction Co. LLC in the Summer of 2016. Brady is also a full-time Realtor at Pamela Rose Auction Company and is currently the Auction Property Manager of Personal Property Auctions, where he assists the Auctioneers with organizing and managing the various Personal Property Auctions.

He has worked at the Epilepsy Center of Northwest Ohio for 9 years and recently decided to change his direction from helping people with their day-to-day lives, to helping people with all of their Real Estate needs. Community service is an important part of Brady's life. He has logged over 7,000 volunteer hours working as a Percussion Instructor for over an 8-Year period. Brady Joined the Pamela Rose Auction Team as an Auction Clerk in 2011, and as a full-time Realtor in 2013.

On The Personal Front

In his spare time Brady can be found: walking his dog at the park, playing the drums in various bands around town, or at an auction searching for deals.
